

Both stay inside ± 0.1 % from four views on. The anisotropy being recovered is 1.09 % — about thirty times the residual error — and no view here is rolled, which is the case a planar board cannot settle.